What make us different?

AFFORDABLE
"One-size-fits-all" cleaning plans don't fit all budgets. Extreme Maids respects your bottom line and will develop a professional, customized cleaning program based on the office cleaning services you need within your available budget.

CONSISTENCY
Proper dusting and vacuuming, consistent attention to detail and certified use of efficient disinfection processes are important, but might be overlooked by your current office cleaning company. Extreme Maids sets a new standard.

PRODUCTS
Even if a facility looks and smells clean, it's not until you have killed and removed germs. Keep your employees happy and healthy by using the Extreme Maids Program for cleaner, better smelling offices with our advance products.
